

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., December 20th., 1881.

Dear Colonel Snowden:

I was somewhat disappointed in not meeting you last Saturday. I particularly desired to talk with you about the appointments to which I alluded in a previous letter; also to consult with you about the coins you propose and improvements in your Mint.

I shall be glad to see you here when you are able to come.

Respectfully,

Horatio C. Blanchard
